“ Our love and condolences to all the Carter & Goforth families. So grateful for the wonderful family and great memories. When big sister Mary and husband Bruce brought her crowd of four little boys down to Mississippi and then to Florida it had to be a noisy visit! But I always felt Marie & Lamar were just glad to have us. Also, have great memories of visiting Mt. Dora where Marie & Lamar and Fred and Vay lived by the orange grove. The yappy little chihuahua and riding the minibike into a fence!

We boys had a great childhood and y'all were such a great part of it. Later, visiting with my own kids, I still laugh at the time the Carters asked us to stay with them at the condo in Tampa area. But their apartment was full of glass decorations and the neighbor beat the ceiling with a broom if Marie & Lamar got too loud! We all decided it would be safer to stay with Brenda at Karen's instead. More kid-proof!

Just writing this down, brings such good feelings, and my heart is full. We love you all, and send our best wishes to Lamar and all, despite being so far away!
